

The Orthodox Clergy Association of Quebec:
*SUNDAY LENTEN VESPERS SERIES 2017:

“YOU ARE BLESSED WHEN....”

“To be poor financially is in a way much easier than to be poor inwardly, to have no attachments. This is very difficult to learn and something which happens gradually, from year to year. You really learn to value things, to look at people and see the radiant beauty which they possess — without the desire to possess them. To pluck a flower means to take possession of it, and it also means to kill it.”

(Metropolitan Anthony Bloom)
